REMARKS

This is UNEVALUATED

1. On 12 May 1954, [redacted] near Ludwigslust 2 shipments, each of 20 boxcars and 25 to 30 flatcars, en route toward Schwerin. The trains, which ran at an interval of 30 minutes, carried each 12 AA guns, presumably of 35 mm; and about 20 trucks.¹ 25X1

2. Between 9 a.m. and noon on 4 May, 20 trucks towing 35-mm AA guns; 4 trucks carrying billeting equipment [redacted] and 1 field kitchen were loaded on a train at the Fuerstenberg/Havel railroad station. The entrained units² had come from the area west of Fuerstenberg. The shipment left toward Berlin. 25X1

1. [redacted] Comment. Probably AAA units which transferred to the Wustrow AAA firing range.

2. [redacted] Comment. [redacted] units of the 31st AAA Div, which are rather safely believed to have come from the Steinfoerde area west of Fuerstenberg, where they had been employed in AAA protection of the Hq Second Gds Mech Army and [redacted] had been relieved by other units of the division from Schoenwalde, which went to Fuerstenberg [redacted]
